

Imagine there is a diary room at Camp Green Lake – like the one in Big Brother. It is Stanley's first day at camp and he has been called into the diary room to talk about his first impressions.

- First impressions of the camp, counsellors and the boys
- The reason he is there
- His family
- What it will be like at Camp Green Lake and how he'll cope
- What the holes might be for