

'The Man with the Yellow Face' – an incomplete summary

After reading the story, decide which five points are the most important in order to fill the gaps in the summary below:

The story begins with the narrator explaining that years ago something strange happened to him.

He explains that he had been sent to York for the weekend, because his parents were splitting up.

[Empty box for point 3]

[Empty box for point 4]

[Empty box for point 5]

[Empty box for point 6]

[Empty box for point 7]

After explaining about the train crash, the narrator reveals that he was the man with the yellow face.