

Comparing The Ballad of Charlotte Dymond with The Gresford Disaster

Complete the table below:

Poem Technique	Charlotte Dymond	Comment	The Gresford Disaster	Comment
Simile 1	'Her skin was soft as sable.'	The writer describes Charlotte's skin in this way, because	'like snow in drift'	This simile is used to describe the gas. It is effective because
Simile 2
Metaphor	'Her throat was made of flame'

