

Putting PEAs in Hamburgers

Remember, when you analyse texts you should use a PEA for each paragraph:

Point
Evidence
Analysis

You can also think about each paragraph as a hamburger with the top part of the bun being the Point; the filling is the Evidence and the bottom piece of bun being the Analysis (which needs to be strong to hold up the argument and the filling and the top piece of bun!)

Look back at page 158. Choose one of the sentences that Ponyboy says about Johnny and Dally and Gone with the Wind and do a PEA analysis on it, using the hamburger below to write out your ideas:
