

Longer writing task:

You have 40 minutes to complete this task

Imagine your school is going to appear in a guidebook aimed at school age students. Write a page feature on your school, explaining what it has to offer and why it is a good place to attend. Present your page attractively (but don't worry about illustrations or writing in columns) and in a way to make it useful for the reader.

Planning grid:

What your school has to offer:
Why your school is a good place to attend:
Appropriate words and phrases for your audience and purpose:

Success criteria:

- ✓ Interesting adjectives used to create a positive impression.
- ✓ Variety of sentences and sentence starts.
- ✓ Accurate punctuation between sentences and clauses including a variety of punctuation.
- ✓ Awareness of the audience through appropriate content / vocabulary.
- ✓ A neatly written piece.