

A View From The Bridge

By the end of the lesson...

- All will have an overview of each character's development.
- Most should have a detailed view of each character's development.
- Some could have a detailed view of each character's development complete with key quotations.

- To chart the development of a character

For your character:

1. Comment on what they are doing when they first appear in the play.
2. Explain the first impressions the audience would have of them.
3. Plot and explain the significant events which involve them in Act 1 & Act 2.
4. Provide a summary of the character.
5. Select 6 key quotations which they say.
6. Select 6 key quotations which others say about them.

Character Development

Character Name:	Act One	Act Two
What they are doing when they first appear
Audience's first impressions
A summary of the character (what they are like)
Explain the significant events which involve them
Three key quotations which the character says
Three key quotations which other characters say about them		