

Sell me a ...

Laminate the cards, cut up and hand out to students. Make sure they don't show the cards to each other. Give students two minutes to prepare and then get them to give a sales pitch to you on whatever is on their card. To make it more difficult you can ban such words as: good; nice; enjoy; enjoyable; like; price ... or any other words you don't want them to use. Make sure you fill in the blanks before handing out the cards and use the blanks at the bottom for your own ideas.

bicycle	gold necklace
computer	pair of jeans
iPod	ticket to see _____
_____’s autobiography	digital radio
dog	flat screen TV
aerobics DVD	pair of roller blades or inline skates pair of trainers	pogo stick season ticket to _____	watch _____ perfume	_____ aftershave
mobile / cell phone	Wii