

Journey's end - Focusing on the exchange between Stanhope and Hibbert in act two, consider how R.C Sheriff presents the comradeship felt by the men fighting in the 1st World War.

In Journey's End can you explain the conflicts between soldiers and what role does food play?

Choose 3 different characters from "Journey's End" and discuss how each of them reacts to the strain of war.

In 'Journeys End', R.C Sherriff presents a realistic picture of life in the trenches and an effective portrayal of the horrors of war. How far do you agree with this statement? Include particular reference to setting, tone, characterisation.