

Rank the statements below: the one at the top should reflect most closely what you think the play is about and then the statements should go in descending order until the one at the bottom least reflects your understanding of the play.

Three witches who have the power to destroy anything and do so.

A foolish man who is weak and easily led.

A greedy couple who plot together.

An evil woman who goes mad.

An ambitious man who feels hard done by.

A country plagued by enemies and unrest.

A weak king who doesn't recognise his enemies.

A noble man who has bad luck befalls with terrible consequences.