

THEMES

A theme is a central idea within a text; one that runs throughout the novel or play. Answer the questions below which are about some of the themes in the novel.

1. Some of the characters in the book Of Mice and Men are very lonely. List three characters who you think are lonely and give reasons why you think they are lonely.
2. Find five quotations from the book which either show that the character is lonely or suggest that people get lonely. Don't forget to write your quotations out correctly with page references.
3. Lennie and George share a dream. What is their dream?
4. Find three quotations about George and Lennie's dream.
5. Who else shares George and Lennie's dream? Give reasons why you think these characters want to share George and Lennie's dream.
6. Who else has a dream in the novel? What are these characters' dreams?

THEMES

A theme is a central idea within a text; one that runs throughout the novel or play. Answer the questions below which are about some of the themes in the novel.

1. Some of the characters in the book Of Mice and Men are very lonely. List three characters who you think are lonely and give reasons why you think they are lonely.
2. Find five quotations from the book which either show that the character is lonely or suggest that people get lonely.
3. Lennie and George share a dream. What is their dream?
4. Find three quotations about George and Lennie's dream.
5. Who else shares George and Lennie's dream? Give reasons why you think these characters want to share George and Lennie's dream.
6. Who else has a dream in the novel? What are these characters' dreams?