

Compare Presents from My Aunts in Pakistan with one other poem, showing how the poets reveal ideas and feelings about their identity.

Compare Nothing's Changed with one other poem, showing how the poets use description to convey their thoughts and feelings in their poems.

Compare Not My Business with one other poem which demonstrates strong attitudes and feelings about how individuals are treated in society.

Compare Island Man with one other poem, to show how the poets use people to explain the conflict that can exist between and within different cultures.