

November

The following questions are designed to help you explore the poem in detail. You must then present your findings to the class, not merely read the answers to the questions.

1. Explain the content of the poem.
2. Using quotations, explain how the speaker views old age.
3. Why has the visit to the care home / hospital had such an impact on him?
4. How does the character feel about the prospect of getting old?
5. How does the use of first person enhance our understanding of the person's perspective?
6. How has Armitage created rhythm in the poem?
7. What message do you think Armitage is trying to convey about life?
8. Share any other observations you have made about the poem.

November

The following questions are designed to help you explore the poem in detail. You must then present your findings to the class, not merely read the answers to the questions.

1. Explain the content of the poem.
2. Using quotations, explain how the speaker views old age.
3. Why has the visit to the care home / hospital had such an impact on him?
4. How does the character feel about the prospect of getting old?
5. How does the use of first person enhance our understanding of the person's perspective?
6. How has Armitage created rhythm in the poem?
7. What message do you think Armitage is trying to convey about life?
8. Share any other observations you have made about the poem.