

Modes of transport

Look at the modes of transport that are described in the novel and explore the significance of each one. Make a diagram: of the way each is described; the feelings each evokes in the narrator; the characters that use each mode of transport; the scenery that is depicted, weather; the impression each creates for the reader.

'... it did represent an escape from the London particular'

