

www.morelearning.net

The importance of Scout Finch

Jean Louise

Scout

Name

What is Harper Lee trying to show the reader?

What do her names suggest?

Why two?

www.morelearning.net

What sort of view of life in Maycomb does she give us?

Is she reliable?

As a narrator

Does she conform to society's expectations?

Does she understand everything she sees and hears?

What difference does her gender make?

What difference does her age make?

How does she feel about her family?

Jem?

Atticus?

Francis Hancock?

Uncle Jack Finch?

Uncle Jimmy Hancock?

Aunt Alexandra?

www.morelearning.net

How does Scout's telling of the story make us feel about her family?

Francis Hancock?

Uncle Jimmy Hancock?

Uncle Jack Finch?

Aunt Alexandra?

Jem?

Atticus?

www.morelearning.net

Dill?

Calpurnia?

Arthur 'Boo' Radley?

Who else influences Scout and in what way?

Who else and how?

Mayella Ewell?

Miss Maudie?

Bob Ewell?

www.morelearning.net

She realises the need to 'fit in'?

She learns about prejudice?

She grows up?

Does Scout change through the novel and what causes this?

She accepts the different expectations of girls and boys?

She recognises the role of tradition?

She understands her father?

She loses her fear?

Overall, what is your opinion of Scout?

www.morelearning.net