Look at the four names below and then see how many links you can make between each character. For each opinion connection that you make (such as similarities in Scout's view of them) you need to find a relevant quotation. When making comparisons, use the following list to help you:

- Family;
- Morals or principles;
- Their opinions of others;
- Others' opinions of them;
- Scout's comments and view of them;
- The way in which Harper Lee wants us to view them.
