

Attitudes to Language Change

Read the text below and, from the perspective of language change, discuss the language used to convey the message.

- What sort of text is this? Who do you think has written it? What sort of assumptions do you make about them? Under what circumstances do you think it was written?
- Summarise your points and consider the extent to which you believe the deviation from Standard English to be accidental.

thanks aimie,

i will deliver a heart pounding performance that bill shakespear himself would be proud of!

rich

Attitudes to Language Change

Read the text below and, from the perspective of language change, discuss the language used to convey the message.

- What sort of text is this? Who do you think has written it? What sort of assumptions do you make about them? Under what circumstances do you think it was written?
- Summarise your points and consider the extent to which you believe the deviation from Standard English to be accidental.

thanks aimie,

i will deliver a heart pounding performance that bill shakespear himself would be proud of!

rich